Liz Magic Laser: Tell Me What You Want To Hear

Diverseworks

April 6 through May 15, 2013

Opening: April 5, 2013 | 7–9 pm

Liz Magic Laser's live performances and videos often intervene in public spaces such as banks and movie theaters, and have involved collaborations with actors, dancers, surgeons, market research analysts, and motorcycle gang members. Tell Me What You Want To Hear is a video installation that explores story-telling methods and interview techniques employed by politicians and newsmakers to elicit public support.
